

ALPHABET ACTION!

Theme/Topic : Who are you?

* Concepts * Observations * Characteristics * Notes * Vocabulary * Connections *

Create an A to Z list of facts and details about _____ . (Person's full name!)

Then, circle ten elements to share.

Reflect upon how this information "shapes" this person and how it connects him/her to others (including yourself)!

- A
- B
- C
- D
- E
- F
- G
- H
- I
- J
- K
- L
- M
- N
- O
- P
- Q
- R
- S
- T
- U
- V
- W
- X
- Y
- Z

* Use your partner's name to create an ACROSTIC PARAGRAPH (100+ words) that introduces, describes and profiles the person. * Try to use "vivid vocabulary!" Help one another to create a power paragraph filled with personality! Use colorful adjectives, clear adverbs, vivid verbs, specific terms (nouns) etc.

Look and Listen carefully to one another! Have Fun! Good Luck!

* Sample "Sentence Strands" – A B C D E F...

America is the home of many heroes: individuals who lead by example, who face fear with courage, who rescue others with their strength or their ideas. Being a hero, however, often comes with a great cost. Civil Rights Leader, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., is one of America's great heroes. Dr. King showed America that color, culture and gender should not be sources of division, but sources of celebration. Each year, in January, we celebrate and honor Dr. King's Legacy by reading about and reflecting upon his work, his vision and his life of service. Four little words he gave to us, "I Have a Dream..." are not just the title of his most famous speech, but are a charge to all Americans to dream of a future filled with promise and to work for peace.