Around Your School Reflection Sheet

How would you describe the job of the person you interviewed? Was the job harder than you expected? Explain.

What was the most difficult aspect of the position?

What was the most rewarding?

What can you do as a student that might ease the difficulty of the position and contribute to the rewarding part of the job?